

CURRICULUM VITAE: DENTIST

Education:

D.D.S., New York University College of Dentistry, June 1980.

M.A., Physical Chemistry, Boston University, May 1977.

B.A., Chemistry, Boston University, 1976.

Licensure and Certification:

N.Y.S. License to Practice Dentistry

N.Y.S. License to Administer Parenteral Conscious Sedation

Advanced Cardiac Life Support

Fellow, Academy of General Dentistry, July 1987.

Hospital Appointments:

2004-present: Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center

1988-present: Maimonides Medical Center 1987-1988:

Montefiore Medical Center

1982-August 8, 2006: Downstate Medical Center

1982 Kings County Hospital

University Affiliations:

July 1993-present: Assistant Clinical Professor, Extramural Hospital Programs, Columbia University School of Dental and Oral Surgery.

APPOINTMENTS:

2004-present:

Attending Dentist, Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center. Responsibilities include supervision of dental residents, presentation of lectures, and diagnosis and treatment of dental problems of clinic patients. Provide clinical and didactic instruction to the dental residents in the operating room.

March 1988-present:

Associate Director, Division of Dentistry, Maimonides Medical Center – in charge of the general practice residency training program. Responsibilities include supervision of dental residents and auxiliary staff, presentation of lectures, and diagnosis and treatment of dental problems of clinic patients

Private practice – Maimonides Medical Center – provide complete range of dental services including implants, fixed and removable prosthetics, periodontal treatment, endodontics, and oral surgery to both in-house and outpatients with a variety of medical problems including cancer, heart disease, neurological deficits, blood dyscrasias, etc.

November 1987-1988:

Assistant Director, General Practice Residency Program, Kings County Hospital Center, Brooklyn, New York. Responsibilities included supervision and training of general practice residents, and presentation of lectures

1987-1988:

Attending Dentist, Montefiore Medical Center, Bronx, New York. Duties included supervision and instruction of dental residents, and treatment of patients with a variety of dental problems.

July 1982-August 8, 2006:

Clinical Assistant Professor,
Downstate Medical Center, Brooklyn, New York. Responsibilities include diagnosis and treatment of dental problems of in-house and outpatients, as well as consultations with other health care professionals.

July 1982-March 1988:

Attending Dentist, Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, New York.
Responsibilities included diagnosis and treatment of dental problems of in-house and outpatients, as well as consultation with other health care professionals.

Hospital Residency:

July 1981-June 1982: PGY2, Chief Resident, General Practice Residency, Lutheran Medical Center, Brooklyn, New York.

July 1980-June 1981: PGY1, Resident, General Practice Dentistry, Kings County Hospital, Brooklyn, New York.

Professional Affiliations/Committees:

Member, American Dental Association.
Member, Second District Dental Society.
Member, Academy of General Dentistry.
Member, Federation of Special Care Organizations.
Member, American Association of Hospital Dentistry.
Member, Academy of Osseo integration

1995, 1996, 1998, 1999: Seminars/Workshops Committee, Greater New York Dental Meeting

January-December 1994: Membership Committee, Second District Dental Society

January – December, 1991: Chairman, Friday Morning Seminars, Second District Dental Society.

Lectures/Presentations:

February 2006

Lecture series:

32BJ restorative dentistry, and local anesthesia review

November, 1997:

Appeared on Good Day, New York – presented information on Dentistry and its correlation to Coronary Artery Disease.

November 1994:

Luncheon for Learning: Greater New York Dental Meeting. “Partial Dentures, Dentistry from the past?”

November, 1993:

Lecture, Greater New York Dental Meeting – “Utilization of Attachments in Partial Denture Design” – Scientific Program of the Seventieth Annual Session.

November, 1991:

Lecture, Greater New York Dental Meeting – “Implant Prosthetics”

References provided upon request.
